A Lifetime of Poetic Reflections

"New And Collected Poems" spans the acclaimed career of Chrissie Gittins, an accomplished poet renowned for her exceptional storytelling ability. The collection traces her poetic trajectory, encompassing her earliest works to her most recent masterpieces.

Through her poignant verses, Gittins explores the complexities of the human condition. She delves into the depths of love, loss, and the passage of time, capturing the raw emotions and profound experiences that shape our lives.

Themes that Transcend Time

Gittins' poetry transcends time and cultural boundaries, speaking to the universal experiences that unite us all. Her poems explore:

William went up in a rocket to see where it would go.
It flew round

and round

the sun and round and burnt his left big toe.

A wonderful collection of new poems and old favourites, some funny and some serious, by a talented children's poet.

'Christie Gittins' poems are imaginative snapshots taken with a quirky edge that appeals to children. She is one of the best children's poets currently writing and visiting schools.' Pia Corbett

Then he flew through the Milky Way and caught

a trail of stars.

He brought them home to his cosy

house,
where he keeps them safe in jars.
