Amelia is a breath of fresh air in the royal court, her wit and determination captivating Edward from the moment they meet. However, duty calls when Edward is summoned to attend a diplomatic mission over the Christmas period. Undeterred, Amelia resolves to turn her chance encounter with the prince into an unforgettable festive tale.

As Christmas Eve approaches, the palace transforms into a winter wonderland, adorned with twinkling lights and festive decorations. Amidst the holiday festivities, Edward and Amelia find themselves drawn to each other's company. They share laughter, secrets, and stolen kisses beneath the mistletoe. But will their newfound love be enough to overcome the obstacles that lie ahead?

On Christmas morning, a royal scandal threatens to tear Edward and Amelia apart. Rumors of their secret affair spread through the palace, casting doubt on Edward's reputation and Amelia's integrity. Faced with a choice between love and duty, Edward must decide whether to protect his crown or follow his heart.

As the snow falls softly on Christmas Day, a heartfelt confession and a magical kiss under the twinkling Christmas lights seal Edward and Amelia's destiny. Together, they embark on a new chapter filled with love, laughter, and the promise of a lifetime together.
